

My Review on Najaf Report

Overall report is very good according to me but, there are some points which I think should be in this report:

1. You should add some more references
2. By reading your report I got some confusion with headings and paragraphs, so you should change the color of headings
3. By changing number of hidden layers, the performance of neural network increases so you should add this hypothesis too and such kind of other functions